Lunch Bags from The Feed

Build your Bag!

Our popular lunch platters have been shelved for the time being, instead we can provide our delicious lunch options in individual named bags.

Let your guests choose exactly what they want - there are over 600 combinations available!

Simply choose which sandwich from either platter A, B or C or a salad box or pot, which flavour of Kettle chips and which cake.

If you wish there are extras available - a can of drink or a sausage roll perhaps?

They are delivered in a named bag along with a compostable plate and napkin, wrapped compostable cutlery if necessary. All items are fully allergen labelled.

We have a spreadsheet available to help make ordering easier, or if you prefer just pop it all down in an email. As usual you will receive an order confirmation.

If you are unable to get your guests choices, we can happily just give you an assortment of lunch bags that are labelled with the sandwich fillings and include assorted cakes and Kettle chips.
